NOTTS. I 13½-5½ LINCS. I with one game adjudicated

On the whole this was a very creditable result for a very weak Notts. side with the top boards showing technical skill and lower down excellent fighting spirit being displayed, indeed both John Tassi and John Worthington were rather unlucky to lose after having escaped from dubious positions. A special mention must be made of Alan Morrey who turned out at very short notice when Chris Dunworth decided he would rather play rugby than represent his county at chess as he had promised. A closer result is anticipated in the next match versus Leicestershire at Radcliffe-on-Trent on December 11th when it is hoped that a far stronger Notts. side (including two current British champions) will be on display.

SECOND TEAM Alan Morrey writes:

On 27th November the County II team were hosts to Lincolnshire II team when fulfilling the third of this season's fixtures. With the visitors defaulting the last five boards the result was never in doubt and the final score was an overwhelming  $18\frac{1}{2}$ - $1\frac{1}{2}$  board victory for Notts.

As Lincs. have already beaten our next opponents, Northants. II, it is reasonable to assume that the match against Derby in February will assume particular significance. It is believed that Notts. must win that match by at least thirteen boards to seven to go forward to the next round of the competition.

There are currently two students playing for the County II team. These are Phil Thomas and John Stephen, both of whom won on Saturday. As the county is hoping to strengthen the II team for the Derby match will anybody around 150 grade interested in playing in that match please contact Tim Lane (Nottingham 391060) or the County captain Alan Morrey (Blidworth 5846).

I had been thinking about trying to get some of the better local players to contribute the occasional game to the bulletin, and so was pleased to be pre-empted on this issue by the arrival of the following article from Ron Clunie:

THE MOVE THAT COST £150 !

A small group from Nottingham (or near) are accustomed to playing occasionally in Congresses and in 1981 visited Scarborough in October (or was it November). Paul Hare, Paul Kemp, my wife (non-playing captain) and myself ventured forth and whilst we enjoyed the visit, we scored none too well.

This year Scarborough Congress clashed with the first 1st team County match of the season and, especially as Norman Lazonby had indicated he would like to join the party, we felt that to deny David Holmes four of his regular players at least was a bit too much. We decided therefore to go to Woolacombe instead and to play in the Barnstaple Open from 15-17 October. Not only that, but we also wanted to see how other congresses were run and how they compare with our own in Nottingham.

This time the party consisted of Paul Hare, myself, Norman Lazonby and his wife Julie. She must certainly have provided the female interest for Norman - he finished with the lowest score of the three of us !! Woolacombe is a long journey and we decided to set off early on Friday morning. The journey to the north Devon coast was very enjoyable and taking the coastal road the scenery quite magnificent.

We arrived in good time to prepare ourselves for the first round, the venue being the excellent Woolacombe Bay Hotel where we were staying. Our first reflections were that the tournament ought to be a lot easier than Scarborough simply because of the distance involved. The strongest expected contender, we thought, would be Gary Lane of Paignton (grade 207J). This feeling was soon shattered when, halfway through the second course at dinner, in walked Grandmaster Tony Miles, later to be joined by his wife, Jana. Sure enough Tony took first place with 5/5.

I was feeling quite pleased with myself on Saturday night with 3/3 but worried about the late start of the last round on Sunday at 3 p.m. (played to a finish) which would have to be followed by the drive back to Nottingham. I was drawn against Gary Lane on Sunday morning and, after a struggle, managed to achieve a draw. Going into the last round there were Miles 4/4, Lane and myself 3½/4, and several on 3/4. I was lucky in that Lane was drawn to play Miles and duly lost (the game was recently published in the Sunday Times). I played P. Walden (grade 190) with Black. I thought I needed to win to be runner-up on my own and to draw to win about £50 as a share of second.

Here is the game:-

White P. Walden	Black R.J. Clunie
1. d4	Nf6	23. c4 Raf8
2. c4	g6	Threatening ...B x g4 and if White captures, ...Rf1ch
3. Nc3	d5	24. Kd2 h6
I resolved to play this line of the Grunfeld because I got into a mess as White when Toothill played it against me in a recent league match. The next few moves will show you why you should know strange openings better before playing them!		25. Rh2 c6
4. c x d5	N x d5	26. Kd3 c x d5
5. e4	N x c3	27. c x d5 Ba4!
6. b x c3	Bg7	Preventing the effective use by White of his rooks on the Q-side.
7. Bc4	O-O	28. Rd2 Rc8
8. Ne2	b6?	Black takes charge.
9. h4! It was at this time that I realised that I had played the moves in the wrong order. I am still not sure but I think ...Nc6 is correct.		29. Ke2 Bd6
9. ... Nc6		30. Kf2 R7c7
Better late than never.		31. Ne2 Bd7
10. Bd5	Bb7	To exchange the knight when it reaches f5. It can't be left there.
11. h5	e6	32. Ng3 Rc3
12. B x c6	B x c6	33. Nf5ch B x f5
13. Qd3	Qd7	34. g x f5 Kf6
14. h x g6	f x g6	35. Rh1 Kg7
15. Qh3	Bh8	36. R1d1 Ra3
16. f3 16.e5 followed by Nf4 must surely have been better.		37. R2e2 R8c3
16. ... e5		It was here that I stopped to consider whether it was such an easy win as I had thought. I had assumed that eventually I could play ...Rxe3 (if the bishop moves f3 falls), pin the rook by ...Bc5, swop off all the pieces and win the ending. White's next, simple yet effective, proved me wrong.
17. Q x d7	B x d7	38. Rc1! Kf6
18. Rb1	Rf7	If 38...Rxe3; Rxe3,Bc5; Rxc5!
19. d5	Bf6	39. R x c3 R x c3
20. Be3	g5	40. Bd2 Rc4
21. g4	Be7	41. Ke1 Rc2?? Disaster.
22. Ng1 I thought my opponent wanted to start again so I offered him a draw which he declined graciously. I had my eye on the journey home and had soon lapped him on the clock.		A total blunder played too quickly and designed to exchange rooks into what I considered a won ending. I think this move cost me second place and £150.
22. ... Kg7		42. B x g5ch Resigns.
		Afterwards my opponent said how sorry he was! However he didn't think that at any stage he was losing. The advance of the Q-side pawns seems to give Black a substantial plus.

At least we managed to leave Woolacombe in time to arrive back in Nottingham before midnight.
